LIGHT INFANTRY LEAVES FOR CAMP

Movements of Militia Took Place in Twenty-eight Cities Today.

"TENTING TONIGHT"

Extensive Program of Instruction for Soldiers in Field and Camp Duties Has Been Arranged.

The Alexandria Light Infantry, Company G, First Virginia Regiment, left this city this morning for Gordonsville, Va., to participate in the annual encampment of the State troops, which will continue until July 30. The company was in command of Captain Frank L. Slaymaker, First Lieutenant W. M. King, and Second Lieutenant G. R. Gaines.

There were 42 members in the company.

Today 52 years ago the progenitors of some of the command were passing through their baptism of fire at Bull Run.

Streets in twenty-eight Virginia cities and towns resounded this morning to the martial tread of hundreds of kahki clad citizen soldiers, marching to trains which bore them to the encampment. Before night the pretty little village of Gordonsville will be in the hands of the militiamen, and another town, consisting of hundreds of pyramids and conical tents, will have sprung up magically on the plains east of it. In these flimsy canvass homes will dwell for the next ten days the 2,000 youthful volunteers, who will learn the duties of a soldier, the better to protect their native State, and to aid their nation in time of stress.

The encampment will be for the infantry arm of the service only, other arrangements for the instruction of the artillery having been made. Thirty-nine companies, two regimental bands, and hospital detachments have been ordered out, and, although the government rules on attendance are unusually hard this year, it is fully expected that every command will muster the minimum strength required by the War Department, while others will carry the maximum to camp.

The work is so arranged that it will be taken up in rotation. The first day will be taken up with drill in the squad formation. On the second day the company formations will be drilled into the men, and this will be followed sucessively by battalion, regimental and brigade movements. The drill periods will be in the early morning and late afternoon, the idea being to avoid the heat the the middle of the day. Several hours will elapse between drills, and this will be utilized by the men for the recreation purposes.

There will be no full dress drills during the encampment, as only the actual field equipment is being taken. The enlisted men carried, in addition to their toilet articles, changes of underclothing, an extra shirt and an extra pair of trousers. They carried their blanket rolls, mess kits, haversacks and everything used in the camp, with the exception of the larger tents.

URGES CHURCH TAX.

Washington Has Plan to Overcome Losses of Excise Income.

Washington, July 21.—If the Works bill, prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors in the District, is passed by Congress it should carry an amendment taxing churches, charitabl institutions and other organizations now exempt, to make up the deficit caused by the absence of saloon revenue. This argument was made by J. H. Adriaans at a meeting of the Washington Citizens' Association last night, where he urged the indorsement of the Works bill with the taxation amendment attached. The Executive Committee of the association, to which the Adriaans matter was referred, will hear arguments for and against the bill and amendment August 10, and report its recommendation at a meeting on August 17.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Eleven men were killed yesterday by an explosion in the Ratthansberg gold mine at Slazburg, Austria.

While Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Carman were motoring about Pennsylvania summer resorts yesterday on the vacation preparatory to Mrs. Carman's trial, William Bailey, husband of the woman she is accused of slaying, declared: "It is a mockery of justice to permit Mrs. Carman to leave the State. "Is it justice to permit this woman to go joy riding outside the jurisdiction of the courts of the State? It looks more like inside politics to me. If I were Mrs. Carman and had this accusation hanging over me, I would not show my face outside my home."

"I shot Gaston Calmette because I knew that he was going to publish in his newspaper the love letters that had been sent me by my husband, M. Caillaux, before he had divorced his first wife, Mme. Guertdon. These letters had been stolen from M. Caillaux by his wife, who wanted to ruin me because her husband loved me." Those words form the essence of the thrilling, impassioned statement made yesterday in the Court of Assizes in Paris by Madame Josephine Caillaux, wife of the former Premier and Cabinet Minister of France, who stood on trial for her life for the slaying of Gaston Calmette, late editor of Le Figaro, on March 16 last. For three and one-half hours the beautiful woman talked to the judges and jury.

Investigation of the proposed invasion of the upper peninsular of Michigan by Japansee truck gardeners from the Pacific Coast has developed that they intend to settle near Chatham, in Alger County. The State's upper peninsula experimental farm is located at Chatham, and it is one of the most fertile districts north of the straits. A number of Japanese have been scouting throug hthe upper peninsula for almost a year, presumably in quest of a favorable location for the colony.

Three persons lost their lives and one was seriously hurt when a New York, New Haven and Hartford freight train struck an automobile at a crossing in the outskirts of Taunton, Mass., Sunday.

An unusual wedding ceremony occurred at Borough Hall, Brooklyn, yesterday, when the 'armless woman' and the "spot-the-spot" man, both of whom are exhibiting at a museum at Coney Island, were joined in marriage. The bride was Miss Marie Lorino, and the bridegroom Charles Geradi. The woman signed the marriage contract with a pen held by her toes. She wore her wedding ring on one of the toes of her left foot.

The premature explosion of a 4,800-pound dynamite charge at Cucaracha slide, in the Panama, killed five workmen, four of thm white, and severely injured one white man and seventeen colored.

Hired to do murder in the defense of Stefano Ruggieri, a 17-year-old boy, who is being tried at Somerville, N. J., for killing Pasquale Falzarano, near Millington, May 17, he accuses a man of being the instigator of the shooting, which resulted in the death of the wrong man. The boy's story was that the man wanted Lugi Degostini out of the way. Repeated urging did no good, the defendant declares, and only when the man threatened to turn him adrift from his berth as assistant in a boarding house did he yield. There was also a cash offer of $60. When the time came, Stefano says, his hand shook so that his aim was unsteady, this accounting for the killing of the wrong man.

"Nick" is buried, and the clods that cover his silver and gold-trimmed coffin are hidden under banks of flowers laid by loving hands. The burial took place after the body had lain in state in Bellevue, Ky. "Nick" was an English bulldog in the household of Mrs. M. A. Winn. "Nick" was the favorite dog of Bellevue, and hundrds of persons went to the Winn home, where the dog's body lay. A name plate was on the lid of a white plush coffin. A white shroud, with a pretzel hanging from his collar (he was very fond of pretzels) added to the demonstration.

EXPECT WAR ON INDIAN PLANT

Alleged Campaign Will Be Followed by Crusade Against Tobacco.

WARNING IS ISSUED

Planters and Dealers Are Cautioned Against "Unjustifiable Attacks of Extremists."

Richmond, July 21.—Believing that prohibitionists are preparing to launch a vigorous campaign seeking to make illegal the culture, manufacture and sale of tobacco in the State of Virginia, members of the Richmond Tobacco Trade, at a called meeting yesterday, passed resolutions designed to warn those engaged in the tobacco business against "the threatened attack," and intended to protect tobacco interests "against the unreasoning and unjustifiable attacks of extremists." Ten thousand copies of the resolutions will be printed for immediate distribution, and steps are being taken to inform the tobacco interests throughout the country of the situation.

"Whereas it has become evident that the forces leading the fight for the adoption of State-wide prohibition in Virginia have begun a fight against tobacco, its use and sale, and whereas the prohibition leaders indicate that should prohibition be adopted in Virginia, that it will be followed by an attempt to prohibit the use and sale of tobacco in Virginia.

"Therefore, be it resolved by the Richmond Tobacco Trade:

"1. That all growers of tobacco and all dealers in and manufacturers of tobacco are hereby warned of the threatened attack upon tobacco, and that the adoption of State-wide prohibition will be the beginning of a fight against tobacco and they are hereby called upon to take such action as will protect their tobacco interests against the unreasoning and unjustifiable attacks of extremists.

"2. That 10,000 copies of the above resolution duly attested by the president and secretary be printed for distribution, and that annexed to the same should appear a copy of a bill recently offered and defeated in Louisiana to prohibit the sale in Louisiana of tobacco, cigarettes or cigarette papers as follows:

The resolutions call attention to the following measures:

"House bill No. 136, by Mr. Johnson (Prohibitionist).

"An act to prohibit the sale, barter or exchange by wholesale or retail of tobacco, cigarettes or cigarette papers, and providing penalties for the violation thereof.

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, That the sale, barter or exchange by wholesale or retail of tobacco, cigarettes or cigarette papers shall be prohibited in the State of Louisiana.

"Section 2. Be it further enacted, etc., That any person who shall give, purchase, offer for sale, barter or exchange tobacco, cigarettes or cigarettee papers in the State of Louisiana shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) and imprisoned not exceeding ninety days, or both, at the discretion of the court.

"Section 3. Be it further enacted, etc., That this act shall take effect from and after January 1, 1915."

The action of the tobacco trade in passing the resolutions is said to have been prompted largely by statements appearing recntly in a prohibition newspaper to the effect that as soon as the State-wide election on prohibition is over the anti-saloon workers will begin an active campaign to drive the tobacco interests from the State. In the meeting it was pointed out that already in several States of the Union temperance and prohibition organizations are actively engaged in seeking to have laws enacted making the manufacture sale and use of tobacco unlawful. Laws are now effective in several states forbidding the manufacture and sale of cigarettes, and in other States prohibition organizations are now seeking to bring about such legislation.

WASHINGTON AND AN ACTOR.

English Player Describes a Chance Meeting with First President.

The Boston Transcript recently contained the following:

It was a chance meeting, at an accident on the road a few miles below Alexandria, on the banks of the Potomac, that brought Washington and the English actor Bernard together. An old-fashioned chaise, containing a man and his wife and household luggage, had been overturned. The actor was on horseback approaching from one direction, and another horseman, coming in the opposite direction at a gentle trot, was seen by him to break into a gallop on witnessing the accident. Both men were at work half an hour reviving the injured woman, who had fainted, and getting the horse and chaise out of a ditch and reloading it with its baggage. It was strenuous work, under a noonday sun in the middle of July. 'My companion," says the actor, "after an exclamation at the heat, offered very courteously to dust my coat—a favor the return of which enabled me to take a survey of his person.

He was a tall, erect, well-made man, evidently advanced in years (1798,) but appeared to have retained all the vigor and elasticity resulting from a life of temperance and exercise. His dress was a blue coat, buttoned to the chin, and buckskin breeches. Thought, the instant he took off his hat I could not avoid the recognition of a face familiar to me, still I failed to identify him; and, to my surprise, I found myself an object of equal speculation in his eyes. A smile at length lighted them up, and he exclaimed: 'Mr. Bernard, I believe." I bowed. 'I had the pleasure of seeing you perform in Philadelphia last winter." I bowed again and he added, 'I have heard of you since from several of my friends at Annapolis. You are acquainted with Mr. Carroll?' I replied that gentleman's society had made amends for much that I had lost in quitting England. He remarked: You must be fatigued. If you will ride up to my house, which is not a mile's distance you can prevent any ill effects from this exertion by a couple of hours' rest.

"I looked around for his dwelling," continued Bernard, "and he pointed to a building, which, the day before, I had spent an hour in contemplating. 'Mount Vernon!' I exclaimed, and then drawing back with a stare of wonder—'Have I the honor of addressing General Washington?' With a smile, whose expression of benevolence I have rarely seen equaled, he offered his hand nad replied, 'An odd sort of introduction, Mr. Bernard but I am pleased to find you can play so active a part in private, and without a prompter."

NUN BREAKS NECK IN FALL

Trips at Top of Stairs in Trenton Convent.

Trenton, July 21.—Sister M. Veronica, a member of the order of Sisters of Charity, was killed last night in a fall down the cellar stairway of the convent connected with St. Stanislaus' Church.

It is believed that Sister Veronica missed her footing while descending the steps. She was found at the bottom by other nuns, attracted by the noise of her fall, and died shortly after being carried upstairs. Her neck was broken. Sister Veronica was 31 years old and her home was in Shamokin, Pa.

CRUSHED IN ELEVATOR.

Philadelphia, July 21.—William Medoff, 45 years old, of Eighty-first street and Gibson avenue, was instantly killed last night, when caught between the third floor and the elevator cage in the building, No. 309 South Second street. His body was wedged so tightly that firemen from truck No. 4, at Third and Delancey streets, had to be called in to chop it loose with axes. When finally extricated the body was crushed almost beyond recognition. It was sent to the Morgue.

Rear Admiral Francis Munroe Ramsay, retired, veteran of the Civil War and at one time superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, died at his home in Washington Sunday afternoon as a result of a complication of diseases.

DUAL TRAGEDY IN WASHINGTON

Soldier, Fired by Jealousy, Kills Woman and Himself This Morning.

VICTIM GRASS WIDOW

Murderer's Wrath Aroused When He Learns that She Visited a Summer Garden With Another Soldier.

Washington, July 21.—Lee W. Newcomb, a private in Company A, First Battalion, Engineer Corps, stationed at Washington Barracks, shot and killed Mrs. Bessie M. Roberts, wife of Van S. Roberts, a private in the same company, in the rear room of the woman's apartment, 311 Seventh street southwest, about o'clock this morning, and then ended his own life by sending a bullet through his head.

The double tragedy was the culmination of a quarrel between Newcomb and Mrs. Roberts, because the latter had last evening visited a summer garden on Seventh street southwest with another soldier.

Newcomb used a .45-caliber automatic revolver. Mrs. Roberts was shot in the left side. She died instantly. Newcomb shot himself in the right side of the head just over the ear, the bullet going through his skull and lodging in the ceiling.

Mrs. Roberts was twenty-six years old and was a native of Clintonsville, N. Y. About a month ago she separated from her husband and went to live in the flat in Seventh street southwest. Newcomb was thirty-two years old, was an intimate friend of Roberts, who had befriended him on a number of occasions. He was a native of Vermont and had been in the Engineer Corps since December.

Central Office Detective O'Brien held a warrant for his arrest. The warrant was sworn out a few days ago by Mrs. Roberts, who charged him with stealing her watch. O'Brien had expected to serve the warrant today.

SUMMER NORMALS.

Teachers of State Appreciate Advantage of the Summer Session.

Richmond, July 21.—That the teachers of the State appreciate the advantages of sumer normal schools is amply proven by the enrollment for the present session. Superintendent Stearnes has just received the figures for the twenty-one schools of the State, and the total shows an attendance of 5,660. This means that over half of the teachers of the State have taken advantage of the summer normals— a fact unprecedented heretofore.

It further shows a wholesome recognition by the teachers of the value of professional training and the exceptional advantages offered by the normals for securing it at a minimum of cost. When it is remembered that attendance upon these sumner schools is in no wise compulsory, the enrollment for 1914 is exceedingly gratifying, especially to the department of public instruction, whose efforts in behalf of sumer normals resulted in a legislative increase of $22,000 per annum for their support—thus relieving Virginia teachers of all tuition fees.

Baby Smothered in Bed.

Norfolk, Va., July 21.—With her head wedged between two rounds in the head of their iron bed and her face buried in a pillow, Margaret Louise Pierce, the 7 months old daughter of J. P. and Mrs. Maggie Early Pierce, 70 Stuart street, South Norfolk, was found dead by her mother Sunday morning at the family residence.

Ask Aid of Clergy.

ROW AT FESTIVAL.

Disturbance at Brandy Station Results in Riot—Three Arrested.

Culpepper, Va., July 21.—At a negro festival at Brandy Station in this county, Sunday evening, there was a free-for-all fight among the men and women, with the result that one man was killed and several others severely injured.

The disturbance seems to have been caused by the undue attention of some of the men to some of the women to which others of the men took exceptions through jealousy.

After the fracas at the festival John Cotham was waylaid on his way home and shot and killed. The negro who fired the fatal shot threw the pistol away, but it was afterwards found by the officers, who arrested three of the negroes, brought them to Culpepper and lodged them in jail. The preliminary trial will take place tomorrow. There is great excitement in the neighborhood among the negroes, many of whom vow vengeance against the murderers of Cotham.

BRINGING ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

United States Will Support Carranza in Quelling New Revolts.

DICTATOR ON A SHIP

Concession Will, It is Said, Be Made to Carbajal and Mexican Credit Will Be Protected.

Washington, July 21.—That Carranza has agreed to make material concessions to Acting President Carbajal, and that the United States will give him its unqualified support, was admitted today in official quarters. This means that he will have the aid of the United States and the South American governments in opposing any counter-revolution, whether, started by Villa or any other malcontent.

While the Administration considers it too early to make any statements regarding policy, it is admitted that if Carranza and Carbajal reach an agreement it will be considered that the terms arranged at Niagara Falls have been complied with and there will be immediate recognition of the provisonal government.

This is considered necessary so that Carranza can get the cash needed for the immediate necessities of government, as the Mexico City treasury is empty.

All obligations incurred by Huerta after October 10, 1913, are to be repudiated by the new government. Some are admittedly legal, and will be honored as an "act of grace" and not one of right, the State Department having been notified by Carranza that it is his intention to protect the national credit.

Puerto Mexico, July 21.—Mexico has probably seen the last of Victoriano Huerta. As it pleased him to say when in power that he was "only an old Indian," so one of the last remarks of the deposed dictator as he left his native country, an exile, was that he was "only one of the sons of Mexico."

General Huerta, General Blanquet, his minister of war, and their families are today en route to Kingston, Jamaica, aboard the German cruiser Dresden. As the warship steamed away there were no cheers carried to the ears of the dictator from shore. There were no salutes. He departed in silence.

Threw Boy in Bag.

Hampton, Va., July 21.—After tying Guy Dilliard, colored, with a rope and using a big bag to keep his feet together, Eli Guy, James Hubbard, Richard Guy and Joseph Farner, colored boys, residing on Back river, threw the prostrate boy into a bunch of bushes and left him to the mercy of the wilderness, it is alleged. The screams from Dilliard finally brought a number of other boys to the scene nad he was taken from the helpless position.

Hubbard, Guy, Farner and Richard Guy were before Magistrate Henry P. Barney charged with assaulting Dilliard. The boys said the act was committed in fun, but Magistrate Barney decided that they were guilty of disorderly conduct and fined each of them $1 and costs, the entire sum being $4.55.

A CORRECTION.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

Dear Sir; I see by the columns of your paper last night that the first of a series of band concerts has been arranged by the chairman, Mrs. T. Clifton Howard, and wil be given by the Indian Guard Band. It also states that the Indian Guard Band is deserving of commendation in taking the initiative in providing entertainment and that they make no charge for their services But we will state for the benefit of the public that St Mary's Hold Name Band have taken the initiative in this matter in giving the band concerts, for we ourselves ,as trustees of St Mary's Holy Name Band, offered the services of the band to Mrs Howard and also to the lady in charge of the ground. We are interested ourselves to advise Mrs Howard to see the managers of the other two bands and try to arrange to have three concerts a week. Therefore the credit of taking the initiative is due the Holy Name Band, as they gave th first concert on the playground on July 6, but after investigating your article we find that Mrs. Howard had nothing to do whatever with publishing the piece. She just notified the Gazette that the Indian Guard Band was to give a concert on that evening and furthermore she wants the Holy Name Band to have the credit of taking the initiative in the matter. Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

I wish to correct a statement in last night's Gazette which under the head of the "band concert at the Washington School grounds," said this was the first of series of concerts. It should have read the second, as the first was given Monday, July 6th, by the Holy Name Band. The committee in charge of the social center work greatly appreciate the co-operation of these bands with them in this work, giving their time and talent free, making it possible for all to enjoy these most excellent concerts free, and we hope will be continued weekly until the close of our social center work the last of August.

MRS. T. C. HOWARD.

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE

Rev. Wm. Cabell Brown, Elected Bishop Coadjutor, Replies to Notification.

The following letter has been received from Rev. William Cabell Brown, recently elected Bishop Coadjutor by the Episcopal Council at its session in Richmond last May:

Caixa 763,
Rio de Janeiro,
June 29, 1914.

To the Rev. Wm. J. Morton, Chairman, and Other Members of the Committee:

Gentlemen—Your letter of May 21, informing me of the action of the Diocese of Virginia in electing me to the office of Bishop Coadjutor, was received June 17th.

Telegrams which I found awaiting me here on my arrival May 24th had already acquainted me with the fact of my election on the first ballot, so that even before the receipt of the official notification of the Council's action, I had had ample time to give the matter most anxious and prayerful consideration .

You will be glad to know that your letter, together with man yothers received by the same mail, served to fix the growing conviction that I ought to accept, so I telegraphed you on June 19, "I accept. Letter follows."

It only remains for me now, therefore, to ratify my telegram and say that subject to the canonical requirements, I accept my selection by the Diocese of Virginia to the office of Bishop Coadjutor.

Believe me, with high regards, faithfully yours,
(Signed)
WM. CABELL BROWN.

RICHMOND'S CHECK O. K.

In yesterday's issue of the Gazette there appeared an article in reference to a transaction by which the Lozano Dry Goods Co. had notified the police to look out for a man who had given them a check for $10 on which the Citizens' National Bank had refused payment on the ground that the man had no account there. The check was signed by H. H. Richmond. It now appears that the check, as given by Mr. Richmond, was perfectly good, as he had a large sum of money deposited to his credit in the bank, but through an unfortunate error or misunderstanding between the manager of the dry goods company and a clerk at the bank, payment on the check was not made when the check was first presented.

Mr Richmond has recently moved to Alexandria County from Baltimore, where he has always enjoyed the highest reputation.

DEPARTURE OF SUCCESS

British Prison Ship Leaves Alexandria at Half-past Four o'Clock This Morning.

After having spent several weeks at Washington city and a week at Alexandria, during which she was visited by thousands of persons, the old British convict ship Sucess left this port at 4:30 o'clock this morning for Wilmington and Philadelphia. The Baltimore tug Resolute, one of the big tugs of the Dougherty fleet, arrived yesterday for the purpose of towing the Success up the coast to the Delaware River.

On the way down the Potomac the wax figures, used to illustrate the history of the old craft, will be taken down and stored away. to prevent injury to them, should the vessel encounter a summer blow and be made to roll on her way from the Chesapeake to the Delaware.

At Wilmington and Philadelphia she will be placed on exhibition, and when her visit to Philadelphia is over she will start for San Francisco, by way of the Panama Canal, and will remain on the Pacific Coast for a year or longer.

Adams used a club on the woman's head, but it was shown in the Police Court this morning that she too, had on her war paint. They were fined five dollars each.

The driver, Gus Constantinople, was cited to appear in the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of reckless driving, but upon an investigation of the case it was shown that he was driving on the proper side of the street and did all he could to prevent the accident. Constantinople was therefore dismissed.

HORRORS OF THE CONVICT SHIP.

The British ship "Success," which has been on exhibition during the past week at this port, is now making her way out of the Potomac to be numbered among the ships that never return. This grim relic of three-quarters of a century ago will exhibit its horrors to the people of Wilmington, Del., and Philadelphia and later make its way to the entrance to the Panama Canal, through which it will pass into the Pacific and become one of the attractions of the exhibition next year at San Francisco.

Many Alexandrians inspected this vessel while it was here visiting the several chambers of horrors, representing the sufferings of subjects of Great Britain, often for what would now be regarded as minor offenses. Many of the unfortunates were women, [illegible]nment of the latter on [illegible]n Australia cannot b[illegible]per

About [illegible]cess" was in the [illegible] in transporti[illegible]cts of the la[illegible]lia, where they told [illegible] cruelty in penal co[illegible]e of England were [illegible]emselves in the slavery question in the United States. Much of the abolition literature circulated in this country at that time came from the British Isles, and some of the productions gave more cruel descriptions of alleged inhumanity to negroes than "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

An article in Chambers' Miscellany, published about that time, purports to be the experience of a slave. He is represented as being shackled and carried into the South. The darkey subsequently escaped and made his way into Virginia. The writer, with no idea of the geography of the country, stated that the black reached Virginia and where he crossed the Chesapeake Bay to Annapolis. The negro also tells of living in dread of huge serpents which he alleged infested the Southern section of the United States. He says that when coiled they looked as large as calves.

Those in charge of the "Success" sell a book which describes the inhuman treatment aboard that vessel, as well as the experience o fthe unfortunate English, Irish and Scotch people who were compelled to toil in the penal settlements for offenses against English law. There is nothing in the history of slavery in America, even when written by abolitionists, to compare with the horrors described. While this species of under the sanction of the British government Englishmen were raising their hands in horror over slavery in parts of the United States.

Sickening details in connection with the transportation of shiploads of slaves from Africa to the Western hemisphere were occasionally published in England during the career of the "Success." (See autobiography of Adam Clarke, Methodist Commentator, in which he refers to his brother, who was supercargo on a ship engaged in transporting negroes from Africa to the American continent.) Confined as they were in the holds of ships, many necessarily died and were cast to the sharks. The book referred to tells of a similar fate of many convicts, whose bodies often floated about the ship. Numbers were flogged to death, while others never recuperated from the terrible sufferings endured in making a voyage from England to Melbourne or Norfolk Island.

ANNIVERSARY OF BULL RUN.

The first battle of Bull Run took place fifty-three years ago today. The Federals were commanded by General McDowell and the Confederates by General Beauregard. This was the only engagement of the Civil War which could be heard in Alexandria. The wind blew gently from the southwest on that memorable day and the cannonading, sounding like distant thunder, was heard by anxious parents, brothers and sisters, who had dear ones in the Confederate army.

Some indulged the hope that the Federals would be badly beaten, and in a few hours the Alexandria boys, who had left the city hurriedly two months before, would return in a few hours to be welcomed by those who had bidden them hasty adieux.

Part of their dream was realized. The Federal army was worsted and stampeded to Alexandria and Washington, but for reasons never satisfactorily explained, the Confederates did not follow up their victory.

The second battle of Bull Run fought on nearly the same field, on August 29 and 30, between 49,000 Confederates under Gen. Robert E. Lee and about 70,000 Federals, under Gen. Pope, the latter being again defeated. The Confederates were greatly superior in leadership, Lee having Jackson and Longstreet to give him efficient support.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

At a called meeting of the Mount Vernon District Good Roads Association held last night at 8 o'clock in the office of the Fairfax Mutual Fire Insurance Company, J. Norman Gibbs was called to the chair, and James E. Johnston acted as secretary.

After a few brief remarks on the life and character of the late James W Roberts, the chairman appointed a committee of four members to draft resolutions in memory of the deceased. Whereupon the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, for the second time since the organization of this association less than one year ago, it has pleased Almighty God in the dispensation of his Providence, to call to his reward another of our members. This time, the late James W. Roberts, President of this Association.

Therefore, Be it resolved, That in the death of Mr. Roberts, the Mount Vernon District Good Roads Association is called upon to sustain the loss not only of its principal officer, but of a valued co-worker and sincere friend whose genial presence and kindly counsel will be ever missed when we are called together in pursuance of our work.

In all things pertaining to the betterment of this community, Mr. Roberts was ever ready to lend a helping hand, so that not only this association but this community has suffered through his death an imparable loss.

Be it further resolved that each surviving member of this association feels that he has sustained a personal bereavemnt. Since he was well known, loved and honored by us all, that Mr. Roberts fully comprehended the qualifications that go to make up the true gentleman was fully attested during his daily intercourse with his fellowmen, and though ever modest and unassuming this characteristic was so much a part of him that it could not fail to impress itself upon all with whom he came in contact.

Be it further resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our association and printed in the Alexandria Gazette, and a copy sent the members of Mr. Roberts family, with the hope that, as time rolls on, the hand which has now so grievously stricken them will also mitigate their sorrow, and to assure them they have our heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of their bereavement,

VISITS HIS OLD HOME.
(Communicated.)

A few weeks since I paid a visit to dear old Alexandria, and on approaching the city I was surprised and delighted to see how the old burg is outgrowing its boundary, although legal decisions wont allow her to embrace in her corporate limits such picturesque and delightful spots, as Braddock Heights, Rosemont, Del Ray, Lloyd's in fact all the territory west and northwest of the city so plentifully dotted with comfortable homes. They are a part of Alexandria anyhow if not legally Their people are her people, and their interests are similar and identical. It was Saturday and as I walked down King street from Peyton's Grove to the Strand, I hardly knew where I was. The large and handsome stores with their profuse and attractive displays, the crowded sidewalks etc. all combined to form a scene worthy of a metropolitan city. A ramble on Sunday further gratified me, the nicely paved streets, the well attended churches etc. all gave evidences to the fact that Alexandria is alive and awake nad moving and will finally reach the rank that is assured here in not the very far future.

I had only one regret, viz. I met so few that I knew, almost all new and younger faces reminding me sadly that I was of the past, and that a new generation now trod the streets so familiar to me once. It gave me pleasure to hear of the success of the hospital fund, alterations to the Braddock and Carlisle houses, the new high school and others not forgetting the new hook and ladder house.

Before closing pardon me for making one suggestion which I hope may bear fruit in due season.

Representative Linthicum, of Maryland, has just succeeded in having historic old Fort McHenry and adjacent land, presented by the U. S. to the city of Baltimore as a park and a most beautiful one it will make. Now, why can't Alexandria make a similar request. I believe that the reclaimed land in what was Baptizing Cove is now held by the government. I passed the spot lately in a steamer and thought what a lovely spot it would make for a park. I am sure that your able representative in Congress with his ability, eloquence and influence could easily induce Congress to make it a gift to Alexandria.

I have trespassed too much on your time and patience, one more suggestion, and I have done. If I remember rightly an insurance expert recently declared Alexandria's fire protection is inadequate for a large conflagration. Baltimore has just put in operation a high pressure service, said to be without equal. It is very simple. consisting of a pumping station at the river front connected with the water mains and in case of fire, the pumps are set in motion and a powerful pressure is secured direct from the plugs without the aid of an engine or engines.

It works admirably there and would without doubt do the same in Alexandria.

BELLE HAVEN.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Adopted at the Board of Directors' meeting of the Independent Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Fairfax County, Virginia, Alexandria, Virginia, July 20, 1914.

Whereas since the last meeting of our Board our genial and highly esteemed President has been removed from all earthly scenes and labors by a very sad accident; while deeply feeling and deploring this irreparable loss, we bow in humble submission to the will of our All Wise Providence. It is becoming and due our late President and friend that we officially record our feelings in regard to his untimely and sad removal from our midst.

Therefore Be It Resolved, That in the death of our President, JAMES W. ROBERTS, this company has sustained a great loss in that a faithful efficient and careful officer has been taken from us. A man of blameless life, clear head, splendid judgment and conservative in all his acts, the community has lost an exemplary citizen, whose ambition was to render service to his fellow citzens. The county has lost one of its best men, always alert and willing to contribute in time and ability to any work or movement that had in it the benefit of the people.

Resolved Further, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on our minutes, one sent the family of the deceased President and be published in the papers of Alexandria City and Fairfax county.

Advice of Mother no Doubt Prevents Daughter's Untimely End.

Ready, Ky.—" I was not able to do anything for nearly six months," writes Mrs. Laura Bratcher, of this place, "and was down in bed for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my head, and with nervousness and womanly troubles.

Our family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he had to give it up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. I thought it was no use for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But I took eleven bottles, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own washing.

I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world. My weight has increased, and I look the picture of health."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, get a bottle of Cardui today. Delay is dangerous. We know it will help you, for it has helped so many thousands of other weak women in the past 50 years.

Why Suffer from Rheumatism?
When relief from rheumatic pains may be had at so small a cost it is surprising that anyone should fail to avail himself of it. Joseph Copparelli, Canastota, N. One application relieved him wonderfully, and a few days' treatment effected a cure. Many others have found quick relief by applying this liniment. For sale by all dealers.

Don't Be Misled if You Have Lung Trouble
If you have Lung Trouble, do not be misled by reports of discoveries of specifics to relieve that affection: No specific has as yet been found. Eckman's Alterative, however, is a medicine for throat and lung troubles which has been successfully used in many cases. If you are sick, it might be wise for you to investigate its merits and its use may be of lasting benefit to you. Read of this case:—
393 Seventh Ave., New York.
"Gentlemen: Five years ago last August I was taken to St. Francis' Hospital to be treated for Bronchitis and congested lungs. After several weeks' treatment I was advised by the doctor to go to a convalescent sanitarium, but could not be admitted because the doctor at the hospital, after a thorough examination, declared my case Lung Trouble, and gave me a certificate to that effect. I showed the certificate to Father Stark, and he advised me to take Eckman's Alterative. I took the Alterative faithfully as directed, and soon found myself free from night sweats and fever, and gradually got better. I have not taken the Alterative now for two years, and can truthfully say I am well. I fell better and am stronger than before my sickness."
(Affidavit) MARY KORHAMER.

SLEMP WILL CAST "DRY" VOTE.

Replying to Anti-Saloon League, Says He Has Always Been "Dry."

Washington, D. C., July 21.—Congressman C. B. Slemp, the Republican representative of the Ninth District, in replying to a letter from S. B. Vaught, secretary of the Washington County headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League, asking him what his convictions are in regard to prohibition, states that he has always been a dry man and expects to cast his vote for prohibition at the September primary.

Mr. Vaught's letter is as follows:

"I am addressing you this note to ascertain your attitude to Statewide prohibition, as it is now before the people of Virginia. I am fully aawre o fthe fact that politics do not enter into this question, it being purely a moral one; but I have been asked repeatedly your attitude, and convictions on the subject. I will appreciate, therefore, an expression from you. I am addressing a similar letter to your opponents, Hon. R. T. Irvine and J. L. Rose."

Slemp sent the following reply:

"I acknowledge receipt of your letter on July 15th, in which you ask my attitude on the question of Statewide prohibition, to be voted on September 22, 1914. In reply I beg to say that I have always been a dry man and expect to cast my vote for Statewide prohibition at this election."

LOST CONSCIOUSNESS.

Motorman Atkinson's Statement of Accident Near Norfolk.

Norfolk. Va., July 21.—Motorman W. K. Atkinson, who was in charge of the Ocean View electric train which crashed into a string of 71 empty coaches on the Virginian Railway Friday morning at Fairmont Park Crossing, when 7 persons were killed and 81 injured, late yesterday afternoon made a sworn statement, in which he declared he was unconscious for a few seconds before the collision. He said he regained consciousness when about a car length from the coal train, and then reversed the power on the car.

Atkinson's statement will be submitted to the investigating board, composed jointly of representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission and State Corporation Commission, which has began its inquiry into the wreck.

After reviewing his day's work Atkinson's affidavit takes up the last run of the wrecked train and continues:

"I remember distinctly blowing my crossing signals for Simpsons Crossing, which is between one-eighth and one-quarter mile north of the Virginian Railway crossing, and I remember shutting off my current. From this time, for some reason I know not why, I lost consciousness until I was about a car length from the Virginian Railway crossing. Then I regained consciousness, and saw the train crossing ahead of me and the signals displayed against me.

"I reversed then, but, of course, it was too late to do any good, and we struck the Virginian Railway train."

JUDGE W. R. STAPLES RESIGNS.

Roanoke, Va., July 21.—Judge Waller R. Staples, of the Corporation Court of this city, who presided at the trials of the Allen clan for the murders at the Hillsville courthouse in March, 1912, has forwarded his resignation to Governor Stuart. It will be effective August 15. He will engage in the practice of his profession.

Judge Staples, braving what some of his friends thought might be death, went to Hillsville at the request of Governor Mann and restored order there after Judge Thornton L. Massie and the officers of the court, with the exception of Dexter Goad, the clerk, had been slain by the Allens.

The Judge presided at the trials in Hillsville, and pronounced the death sentences upon Floyd Allen and his son Claude.

DROWN DIVING FOR MUD.

Boys, in Unique Battle, Stick in Their Own Ammunition.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 21.—During a mudball fight among a crowd of boys bathing in a cave-hole near the Butler colliery at Du Pont, 12-year-old Stanley Juba and 10-year-old John Panus dived simultaneously to get a fresh supply of mud, and were drowned.

Companions missed the two and men summoned located the bodies. They had slid down the sloping sides of the cave to the centre, where the water is 15 feet deep.

BANK TO PAY DIVIDEND.

Checks for One-fourth of Amount on Deposit in Commonwealth Institution Will Be Mailed.

Richmond, July 21.—Judge Moncure, of the Chancery Court, entered an order yesterday in the suit of the State Corporation Commission against the Commonwealth Bank directing the receivers of the bank to pay a dividend of 25 per cent to all depositors who had funds to their credit in that institution at the time of its failure, on August 29, 1913. Checks for the dividends will be mailed at once.

According to the statement of Commissioner Howard, the deposits over $2 amount to $540,030.15. Allowing $1,000 for the smaller accounts that do not appear in the statement, the checks that will be mailed in the next day or two to the depositors of the Commonwealth Bank will aggregate $135,257.53. Other dividends will be ordered by the court as soon as the cash realized from the liquidation of the bank's assets permits.

FIREMAN KILLED.

Another Badly Injured and Three Hurt as Speeding Hose Cart Capsizes.

Lynchburg, Va., July 21.—The overturning of a hose cart of the fire department last night, when the apparatus was responding to a small blaze, caused the death of Charles M. Hutcheson, a fireman, and the serious, if not fatal, injury of Captain James Higginbotham. Three other firemen were painfully hurt.

A cart wheel caught in the street car tracks and the lurch threw the vehicle over. Four of the men were taken to a hospital.

WILLARD IN RICHMOND.

Ambassador to Spain Pays Visit for First Time Since His Appointment.

Richmond, July 21.—Joseph E. Willard, United States Ambassador to Spain, is in the city shaking hands with his hosts of friends. This is his first visit to America since his appointment. Captain Willard is looking well and feeling fine. He is glad to be back on American soil, even for a short time. He came over with his son-in-law and daughter, who were recently married in Madrid, and will leave for New York tonight to see them off tomorrow, when the young couple sail for Brazil, their future home.

There is no political significance in Ambassador Willard's visit to America and when questioned, he had nothing to give out for publication. He will return to Richmond in a few days to remain about a week.

"This man must win!"

"He's the man who, from the beginning of time, has proved to the world that it can be done. You can check him but he'll come back and come back until you wreck him. His will is made of whalebone. It has snap but won't snap. Bend it as much as you please but watch out for the rebound! He'll thrive so long as he's alive. The length of his fight is the limit of his faith. It takes more than one hit to make him quit."
